

Scarlett Quinn Biography

Scarlett was born and raised in Brighton, England.

She excelled at dance and musical theatre from an early age and worked in local theatre and also with the National Youth Music Theatre.

Scarlett worked as a junior presenter for the Disney Channel presenting shows like the Kids Choice Awards.

When she was 15, she took up guitar and began writing songs.

In 2009 she met writer and guitarist Graham Kearns who introduced her to Judy Tzuke and producer Charlie Russell. They wrote several songs together and Scarlett was encouraged to take singing and writing seriously, which she did.

In 2010 she met Ashley Slater and Kristian Booth who were professional songwriters and joined their Iconical team as a topline writer and singer.

Since then, Scarlett has become quite well known as Kitten from Kitten and The Hip and even made a couple of X Factor appearances in 2014 and 2015.

She's also had a good career as a bit of a dance music diva, appearing with many acts such as Netsky, Manufactured Superstars, Dub Pistols, D Cup and Mark Lower (their collaboration Bad Boys Cry has notched up 35,000,000 YouTube hits).

She continues her career as a topline writer and singer with some very exciting features in the pipeline.
